

WOMEN, CONFLICT, AND PEACE AGREEMENTS:

A Closer Look at the Pretoria Peace Agreement Implementation

Presented by

Dr. Makda T. Maru

Assistant Professor of Political Science

 Tuesday, March 24, 2026

 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

 BOA213

*Brought to you by the Department of History, Political Science, Philosophy, and Law Studies
Delaware State University*

The Pretoria Agreement, signed in 2022, brought an end to a devastating conflict in Africa that claimed more than six hundred thousand lives. Though the war touched everyone in Tigray, Ethiopia, its effects on women have been especially deep and far-reaching. The Peace Agreement does not address these needs of women.