

Victor N. Gomia, Ph.D.
Professor

Department of Languages and Literatures
Delaware State University
Room: EH 250
1200 N. DuPont Hwy
Dover, DE 19901
Phone: 302 857 7871
Fax: 302 857 6563
e-mail: vgomia@desu.edu

- Dr. Gomia regularly teaches African American Literature and World Literature classes, both as traditional and on-line courses. He also teaches Contemporary Literature and Global Societies. Dr. Gomia's field of specialization is Post-colonial Literature. His current research interests include popular literature as utilitarian literature in post-colonial settings as well as globalization and literature. The latter inspired a project that resulted in Re-Writing Pasts, Imagining Futures: Critical Explorations of Contemporary African Fiction and Theater, a volume he co-edited with Gilbert Shang of Bayreuth University. His most recent journal articles were on Bole Butake and Ngugi Wa Thiongo. He reviews works on African Studies for Spears Media and Palgrave Macmillan publishers. His most recent awards were from Delaware Humanities Forum (DHF) and Howard University's Center for African Studies. Dr. Gomia was the 2012 recipient of the Department of Languages and Literatures Research and Publication award.